- How many children and adults are currently waiting for an ADHD diagnosis
- What is the average wait for an ADHD diagnosis for Children
- What is the average wait for an ADHD diagnosis for Adults
- What is the Trusts target time for an ADHD waiting time

Response to questions 2 – 5.

The South part of the trust does not have a specific ADHD service therefore unable to calculate waiting times. Clients are referred to a consultant for a diagnosis within the outpatient setting.

PLEASE NOTE: The North part of Trust does not provide this service and the above information only applies to the South part of the Trust.
