Equality and Inclusion for Everyone

Our staff and the people who use our services are protected under the Equality Act (2010), which helps prevent unfair discrimination, harassment and victimisation. We work to make sure our services are open, tolerant and supportive of the differences that make us all unique.

If you would like to know more about how we promote Equality and Inclusion in EPUT, would like to share your experiences or be involved in future Equality and Inclusion projects, please contact The Patient Advice and Liaison Service (PALS) who will put you in contact with the right team. You can reach them on:
