

Accessible Information Standard

The Accessible Information Standard aims to make sure that anyone who has a disability, impairment or sensory loss are given information they can easily read and understand.

Please inform staff of your communication or information support needs.

To help us make sure we get things right we need to record your accessibility requirements and information needs alongside your other details.

