Information Requested:

1. Does the Trust currently commission any insourcing?

We do not commission any insourcing.

Please see definition of insourcing from NHS England below:

Insourcing is a term used to describe a range of medical and clinical services, which are deployed to utilise spare, out-of-hours capacity, typically at weekends, within a trust, in addition to the trusts existing provisions, with the intention to bolster service outputs and improve efficiency. Such services are typically provided by specialist medical or clinical providers who can provide the specialist capabilities required to deliver an end-to-end service, including clinical governance and oversight. These services are typically contracted for based on the required service outputs and are charged at or below the national tariff. Insourcing is not the deployment of temporary workers or the use of temporary staffing agencies to support with capacity and demand planning and the supply or management of temporary workers into the trust.
